SECTION 1 - BYLAWS AMENDMENT 14
SECTION 2 - STANDING RULES AMENDMENT 14

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this Corporation shall be 1st U.S. Volunteer Cavalry Regiment Rough Riders, Inc.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

The 1st U.S. Volunteer Cavalry Regiment Rough Riders, Inc. (hereinafter "Rough Riders") is formed for the purpose of creating and perpetuating a living memorial to the unique accomplishments of President Theodore Roosevelt and the members of the 1st U.S. Volunteer Cavalry Regiment known as the "Rough Riders."

As the City of Tampa was selected as the assembly and embarkation site of the U.S. military in 1898 for the ultimate liberation of Cuba, it is most appropriate for the citizens of the Tampa Bay area to form this organization.

It is the intent of the members of the organization to develop ways to celebrate this great moment in American History by such activities as an annual festival; to collect and display artifacts of the era; to educate and emphasize to generations to come the importance of this feat by military forces; and to create other memorials as shall be appropriate from time to time.

ARTICLE III - ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

The corporation shall be structured as follows:

The Corporate Officers, registered with the State of Florida, including the Chairman, President, Vice President, and Treasurer. An annual filing is required by the Florida Division of Corporations.

A Board of Directors consisting of 39 elected members and a varying number of emeritus members. The Board is described in depth in Article VII.

An "Executive Board" shall be approved by the Board of Directors. Its members shall be assigned officer status and military rank, with one officer each year to be designated "Lt. Colonel" of the Regiment. The positions and duties of the Executive Board are described in Article VI, Section 1.

The main body of membership which shall be designated as the 1st U.S. Volunteer Cavalry Regiment-Rough Riders. Members shall be designated an honorary enlisted or officer's military rank.

No auxiliary or similar group shall be formed or exist without the specified approval of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1 – ELIGIBILITY

Membership shall be open to all persons 21 years of age or older without regard to race, sex, color, creed, National origin, religion or economic status who demonstrate a sincere desire to promote and perpetuate the mission, ideals and purposes of the organization.

SECTION 2 - CHARTER MEMBERS
All members included in the first official roster shall henceforth be designated Charter Members of the corporation.

SECTION 3 – POLICIES AND PROCEDURES
See STANDING RULE 1 – MEMBERSHIP for policies and procedures related to membership.

ARTICLE V - DUES AND FINANCES

SECTION 1 - FISCAL YEAR
The fiscal year of the corporation shall be October 1st through the following September 3Oth.

SECTION 2 – DISSOLUTION
In the event the corporation is dissolved for any reason, after the payment of all expenses and indebtedness, all funds shall be donated to the History Department of one or more colleges or universities in the Tampa Bay area, as determined by the Board Directors. In addition, any property, owned or held by the corporation (whether real or personal) shall similarly be turned over to one or more colleges or universities as Trustee for the benefit of the Historical Education of, and Historical Commemoration by, the citizens of Tampa, in perpetuity.

SECTION 3 - INVESTMENTS-DEPOSITS
The Board of Directors shall designate a Federally Insured Depository for funds of the corporation. The Board of Directors may designate other forms of financial investment as determined by the Board in the best interest of the corporation. The approval of a minimum of two (2) corporate officers shall be required to withdraw any funds.

SECTION 4 - STRATEGIC FUND
The Strategic Fund serves 3 purposes; 1) The Strategic Fund provides a Reserve Fund for the periodic replacement of building, real property and rolling stock systems and subsystems; 2) The Strategic Fund provides resources for discretionary one-time projects that add to or enhance the building, real property, or rolling stock; 3) The Strategic Fund constitutes the resources to mitigate catastrophic events/situations. The Strategic Fund will be maintained at a specific threshold set annually by the Board of Directors at the April meeting to ensure sufficient funds are available to meet catastrophic events/situations. Policies and procedures for the Strategic Fund are detailed in Standing Rule 13.

ARTICLE VI - OFFICERS

The Executive Board shall meet at the clubhouse or via electronic video means. The Executive Board meeting shall be closed to the general membership but is open to the Past Presidents and other invited guests.

The Executive Board shall have administrative power and authority over the affairs of the corporation, except as specifically reserved to the Board of Directors. It shall be the duty of the Executive Board to transact all necessary business between the meetings of the Board of Directors; and they shall render a full report of their activities to the Board at its next regular or special meetings.

SECTION 9. BONDING
The Past Presidents may designate which members of the Executive Board who shall be required to be bonded.

SECTION 10. PAST PRESIDENTS
The Past Presidents shall serve to advise the President, the Executive Board, and the Board of Directors and to establish selected matters of policy and procedures for the corporation.

The Past Presidents shall select the committee chairs and members for the Membership/Promotions Committee, the Charitable Contributions Committee, the Disciplinary Committee, the Finance-Internal Audit Committee, the John Winter Teddy Bear Fund Committee, the Strategic Planning Committee, the Bylaws Committee and other specially designated committee as set forth in these bylaws.

The Past Presidents also shall serve as a Nominating Committee of Past Presidents each year and shall present a slate of Directors to the membership at the Annual General Membership Meeting. Nominations may also be accepted from the floor for the one-year terms of five (5) Board of Director members at the Annual General Membership Meeting.

ARTICLE VII - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. COMPOSITION - Board of Directors:
The Board of Directors shall be the governing body of the corporation. The Board of Directors shall be composed of the following: 34 elected members serving two-year terms,; 5 elected members serving one-year terms,; and all Board Emeritus, Senior Emeritus, and Honorary Emeritus members, including the Past Presidents. Non-dues paying Senior Emeritus (and Honorary Emeritus/Senior members) shall not be entitled to vote.

SECTION 2. DUTIES
1. The Board of Directors shall: Receive for review and approval the Annual Budget from the President-Elect.
2. Receive for review and approval the Integrated Capital Improvement Plan from the Strategic Planning Committee in April of each year.
3. Receive all reports from corporate officers and other standing or special committees.
4. Perform the other duties assigned it herein.

SECTION 3. MEETINGS
The Board of Directors shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board at such times during the year as may be required from time to time. In any event, the Board of Directors shall meet at least six times every year either in person or via electronic means such as conference call or video conference.

SECTION 4. TERM
The term of office of members of the Board shall be two years or one year as identified in Section 1 and they may serve successive terms of office.

SECTION 5. BOARD EMERITUS AND BOARD SENIOR EMERITUS

1. Board Emeritus

a. Past Presidents, in good standing, may be deemed to be a Board Emeritus member, after completing service as the Chairman of the Board and shall not hold an elective position on the Board of Directors.

b. Members who have served at least four terms on the Two-Year Board and/or at least eight years on the Board of Directors, whether serving One- or Two-Year terms, or a combination of both positions, may be recommended by the Nominating Committee of Past Presidents as a Board Emeritus Member, subject to approval by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors position held by the designated Board Emeritus Member shall be deemed to be vacant.

c. Board Emeritus Members may be designated as Active Board Emeritus or Retired Board Emeritus.

1) Active Board Emeritus Member

Once designated as Board Emeritus members, the affected Board Emeritus Member shall make an annual election to remain as an Active Board Emeritus Member and shall continue to attend meetings as required. Active Board Emeritus Members shall be entitled to vote as a Board Member and shall be subject to all attendance requirements and other duties and responsibilities of Board members.

2) Retired Board Emeritus Member

In the alternative, once designated as a Board Emeritus member, the Board Emeritus Member may elect to retire as a Board Emeritus Member, with present rank and privileges. Said member shall be deemed to be a Retired Board Emeritus Member, who shall not be required to meet attendance requirements and shall not be eligible to vote. A Retired Board Emeritus Member may not revert to Active Board Emeritus Member status.

3) In the event that a Board Emeritus Member fails to meet attendance or other requirements of a Board of Director position, then the Board of Directors, after notice to the affected Board Emeritus member, may grant retirement to the affected Board Emeritus Member, with present rank and privileges.

4) All Board Emeritus Members shall pay dues, regardless of Active or Retired status.

5) All Board Emeritus Members, whether Active or Retired shall remain eligible for consideration for Executive Board positions. Positions held by Board Emeritus Members shall not be subject to re-election by the Board Emeritus Member. However, the position held by the Board Emeritus Member shall be deemed to be a vacant position and may be filled as provided elsewhere in the Bylaws and Standing Rules.

6) These provisions shall not apply to Board Emeritus positions held by Past Presidents or to members who already have been granted Board Emeritus status prior to the enactment of this Bylaw.

2. Senior Board Emeritus

Members of the Rough Riders' “Board Emeritus" who have served in this capacity for a period of 10 or more years, upon the recommendation of the Nominating Committee of Past Presidents and subject to Board approval, may be elevated to the high honor in the Rough Riders of “Senior Board Emeritus”. There shall be no more than 5 Senior Board Emeritus members.

Senior Board Emeritus Members, who have paid the current year's dues, shall have full voting privileges as a member of the Board of Directors and shall remain on the Board of Directors as a Senior Board Emeritus. Senior Board Emeritus Members are not required to pay annual dues, however, only those Senior Emeritus Members who remain in good standing and who pay current annual dues each year will have full voting privileges on the Board of Directors. Senior Board Emeritus members shall not be required to run for re-election and shall not be subject to attendance requirements.

3. Honorary Board of Director (or Senior) Emeritus

Upon the recommendation of the Nominating Committee of Past Presidents, the Board of Directors may bestow the honor of "Honorary Board of Director (or Senior) Emeritus" on those members, who wish to be less active or have become less active, and who have in the past served the Rough Riders organization in an exceptional capacity as a "Senior Board Emeritus" or "Board Emeritus." They shall be exempt from paying annual dues but will have no voting privileges. The Board of Directors from time to time may consult with these “Honorary Board (or Senior) Emeritus” members on matters that, from their experiences, could serve and benefit the Rough Riders organization. These honorary positions shall be limited.

Highlights of Bylaw:

Persons affected	Requirement	Honor or elevation
Past Presidents	After service as Chairman of Board	Board Emeritus
Regular Board Member	8 years of service on Board	Board Emeritus (Active or Retired)
Board Emeritus	10 years of service on Board as Board Emeritus	Senior Board Emeritus limited to 5
Board Emeritus or Senior Board Emeritus	10 years of service on Board as Emeritus or Senior Emeritus (For exceptional service)	Honorary Board or Senior Board Emeritus* limited

SECTION 6. ELECTION

The Past Presidents also shall serve as a Nominating Committee of Past Presidents each year and shall present a slate of Directors to the membership at the Annual General Membership Meeting. The Past Presidents in their discretion and without a bylaw change may choose not to fill any of the above-described positions or to reassign duties of any Officer, as they deem appropriate. The Past Presidents may remove any officer or Board of Director member for misconduct or misfeasance, or excessive absences.

1. Two-Year Board Members

Thirty-four (34) of the Directors shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee of Past Presidents at a General Membership Meeting to be held during the month of October and elected by the general membership at the Annual General Membership Meeting.

2. One-Year Board Members

Five (5) Directors shall be elected at large for 1-year terms at a General Membership Meeting to be held during the month of October. Those members nominated must have four complete years longevity in the Rough Riders organization. Members in good standing who are otherwise eligible to serve on the Board of Directors shall submit to the Nominating Committee a Notice of Willingness to Serve by August 31st. The member shall provide his or her membership number, years of service and any other information the Nominating Committee deems appropriate. Nominations for these five positions shall be permitted from the floor at the Annual General Membership Meeting.

Election shall be made by secret ballot and ten percent (10%) of the general membership shall constitute a quorum for the election. No annual election shall elect over 50% of the members of the Board of Directors.

Members who are elected or nominated to serve on One Year Board of Directors positions may only serve a maximum of two (2) terms on the Board of Directors so that other members will have the opportunity to serve on the One Year Board of Directors. Members who complete at least one term on the One Year Board of Directors shall retain their rank and shall be eligible for nomination to a Two-Year position on the Board of Directors at a later date.

These term limits are in effect upon passage of the Bylaws Amendment. Those presently serving in 1-year board positions upon passage will be assessed as having served one term at the end of this fiscal year regardless of their actual length of service on the board.

3. Election Registrar

The Nominating Committee of Past Presidents shall propose as part of the Annual General Membership Meeting election process the name of an individual to serve as Election Registrar during the upcoming fiscal year. The Election Registrar shall oversee and certify all election results in accordance with processes and procedures detailed in Standing Rule 15.

SECTION 7. ATTENDANCE

Any member of the Board who shall fail to attend three meetings of the Board in a fiscal year, without justification and approval from the Chairman of the Board, may be subject to removal from office by a majority of the Board at a regular or special meeting. The Board of Directors monthly attendance roster shall be maintained by the organization Secretary. The Chairman of the Board and the Secretary will validate the attendance roster for each meeting. Board of Directors members subject to attendance requirements shall be contacted by the Chairman of the Board when they have two unexcused absences. When a member has a third unexcused absence, the Secretary shall notify the Chairman of the Board who shall raise this issue with the offending Board of Directors member. Should a member be removed by a simple majority of the Board of Directors members present and voting, the Chairman shall notify the Nominating Committee of Past Presidents which shall then proceed to Nominate a replacement Board member at the next meeting.

SECTION 8. VACANCY

Whenever a vacancy shall occur on the Board of Directors, for whatever reason, the Board of Directors may, upon the nomination by the Nominating Committee of Past Presidents, select from the membership a person to fill the unexpired term. Just consideration shall be given by the Board of Directors to persons who were nominated for office, but who failed to win election at the previous Annual General Membership Meeting. Persons nominated must meet all eligibility requirements for service on the Board of Directors. The Past Presidents may choose to leave a position vacant and unfilled.

SECTION 9. QUORUM

A quorum of the Board of Directors shall exist when 51% of the entire Board of Directors shall be present at a regular or special meeting. The Secretary shall sum the total of elected Board members, Emeritus members, Honorary Emeritus members, and Senior Emeritus members and multiply that sum by 51% to determine the required quorum. The Secretary shall record the required quorum and the attendance numbers by category in the minutes.

The Board of Director Membership Quorum shall be modified to reflect only Board of Directors who are required to attend Board meetings and eligible to vote and shall be reviewed each year. Retired Board Emeritus members are non-voting Board of Directors members and are not included in the quorum calculation.

SECTION 10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS ADVISORS

The Board of Directors shall use ex-officio advisors to assist in conducting business. The Nominating Committee of Past Presidents in consultation with the Executive Board, shall nominate these advisors to the Board of Directors at the Annual General Membership Meeting. These advisors serve for a one-year term and may be reappointed by the board for successive terms. These ex-officio advisors may attend any/all Board of Directors meetings and workshops to advise the board. The ex-officio advisors shall not be considered for determining board meeting quotas and do not have board meeting voting rights nor attendance requirements. Advisors shall contribute to the board conversations but may not make motions or vote on issues before the board. If a Board of Directors member desires to fill one of these positions, the board member forfeits his/her board voting privilege.

1. Parliamentarian. The parliamentarian advises the Chairman of the Board and board members on all parliamentarian issues in accordance with Roberts Rules of Order.
2. Legal Advisor. The Legal Advisor is a lawyer duly authorized to practice law in the State of Florida and is subject to the Florida Rules of Professional Conduct. The Board of Directors (and committee chairs where appropriate) may, from time to time, desire review of contracts, other legal documents, and laws and regulations necessary to facilitate the functions of the Rough Riders. Upon such a request, the Legal Advisor shall provide a neutral, unbiased, and objective assessment of the advantages and disadvantages, risks and alternatives, and any appropriate legal process to follow regarding a particular issue to assist the Board of Directors. The information that the Legal Advisor provides is for the benefit of the Board of Directors, but the Legal Advisor shall not participate in any decisions related to the provision of that information (except where the Legal Advisor is also a member of the Board of Directors, in which case the Legal Advisor may, but is not required, to participate in the decisions).

3. Chief Financial Officer (CFO). The CFO primary role is that of adviser to the Rough Riders organization. The CFO should make themselves available to the Board of Directors, Executive Board and Past Presidents for accounting advice. The CFO should be a member of the Finance-Internal Review Committee. Other duties of the CFO should be as follows:
    a. Periodically provide the Board of Directors with a comparison of the year-to-date income statement and the Budget.
    b. Annually review the Rough Riders Tax return.

ARTICLE VIII - COMMITTEES

SECTION 1 - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (EXECUTIVE BOARD)
The then-serving Executive Officers shall be hereinafter known as the "Executive Board".

The Executive Board shall consist of the elected corporate officers, including the Chairman of the Board; the President of the corporation; the First Vice President/Chief of Staff, Second Vice President/Treasurer; Secretary, and Logistics Officer, or other persons nominated by the Nominating Committee of Past Presidents and approved by the Board of Directors.

It shall coordinate and oversee the charitable donations of the Rough Riders to the community to assure compliance with the Articles of Incorporation and governing charter, as well as the By-Laws and Standing Rules of this organization and the Rules and Regulations of the Internal Revenue Service and the laws of the State of Florida. The Chair of the Rough Riders Charities Committee shall be selected by the Past Presidents.

All monies entrusted for non-Teddy Bear Fund charitable purposes to the Rough Riders shall be distributed only by the Charitable Contributions Committee and the Rough Riders Treasurer on Rough Rider checks. The Charitable Contributions Committee procedures are detailed in Standing Rule 20.

The Charitable Contributions Committee shall be composed of one member of the Past Presidents, who is appointed by the Past Presidents and who shall act as its Chairman; and two (2) other Rough Riders Board members with financial or accounting experience who shall be appointed by the Rough Riders President.

4. JOHN WINTER TEDDY BEAR FUND COMMITTEE

The John Winter Teddy Bear Account shall be directly overseen by the John Winter Teddy Bear Fund Committee and expenditures from the account must be approved by the committee. The committee shall consist of two members and the members of the committee will be selected by the Rough Riders Past Presidents.

5. BYLAWS AND STANDING RULES COMMITTEE

There shall be established a permanent Bylaw and Standing Rules Committee. It shall be chaired by a Past President, and shall include two Past Presidents, two Executive Board members and two members from the membership at large and shall include a legal officer who shall review and approve the matters before the Committee. The Bylaw and Standing Rules Committee shall review, revise and develop Bylaws and Standing Rules, and other procedures and directives, as needed.

6. FINANCE-INTERNAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

The Finance-Internal Audit Committee is to be comprised of three (3) people appointed by the Board of Directors. The committee will report directly to the Board of Directors. The Finance-Internal Review Committee will select one member of the committee to act as chairperson and spokesperson for the committee. Two of the committee members must have an accounting background or be a CPA. The CFO shall be a member of the Finance-Internal Review Committee. The Legal Advisor shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee.

The responsibilities of the Finance-Internal Review Committee are:

a. Audits the accounting and financial data of the organization to ensure accuracy and compliance with government guidelines and laws.

b. Identifies improper accounting or documentation and researches issues and makes recommendations to improve policies or procedures.

c. Works with any outside auditors to help reconcile discrepancies or support the external auditing function.

d. Collaborates with the Treasurer and tax preparers to identify policy, process and procedural issues to be addressed by the organization.

7. DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

The Disciplinary Committee shall consist of at least five Past Presidents, the current President, one Executive Board Member, and one member of the Board of Directors selected by the Chairman of the Board. The Rough Rider legal counsel or designee shall also serve as a non-voting member and advisor to the Disciplinary Committee. The members of the Disciplinary Committee shall elect a Chair who shall conduct the proceedings. The Disciplinary Committee shall follow the procedures set forth in Standing Rule #9, Disciplinary Committee Procedures.

8. STRATEGIC PLANNING COMMITTEE

The Strategic Planning Committee shall consist of three Past Presidents, the current President plus one Executive Board Member and two other Board of Directors members selected by the President. The Rough Rider legal counsel or designee shall also serve as a non-voting member and advisor to the Strategic Planning Committee. The Strategic Planning Committee shall elect a Chair who shall conduct the proceedings. The Strategic Planning Committee shall follow the procedures set forth in Standing Rule 12, Strategic Planning Committee.

ARTICLE IX - GENERAL MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 2 - QUORUM
Ten percent (10%) of the General Membership present at any meeting shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE X - PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

All meetings of the corporations shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the current edition of "Robert's Rules of Order," to the extent they are not inconsistent with these bylaws.

ARTICLE XI – BYLAWS/STANDING RULES AMENDMENT

SECTION 1 - BYLAWS AMENDMENT
These Bylaws or the Articles of Incorporation may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the members of the Board of Directors present and voting at any regular or special meeting. Ten (10) days written notice of a Bylaws change shall be given to each member of the Board prior to a meeting unless written notice is waived by each member of the Board before any change is acted on. An email with the proposed changes attached will be sent to the email address on file with the organization and shall be considered sufficient to meet the requirement of written notice. A copy of the proposed changes will also be posted in the Rough Riders Admin Office.

SECTION 2 - STANDING RULES AMENDMENT
Standing rules may be added, deleted, or changed by a simple majority of the Board of Directors present and voting at any regular or special meeting.
